Week of December 13, 2024

This Week in ELA Grades 6-8...

Sixth Grade continued closely reading the short story, "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" by Washington Irving, adapted as drama by Scholastic Scope. We also continued closely reading and analyzing nonfiction paired-text articles, "How Candy Conquered America" from Scholastic Scope. We rehearsed readers' theater groups, and we practiced making inferences and continued studying literary elements of plot. We read our Independent Reading (IR) books. We practiced writing text-dependent paragraphs, and we responded to December choice board writing prompts. We also read nonfiction texts on Newsela and completed paragraph responses, and we completed weekly i-Ready lessons. We continued Wordly Wise Lesson 4 activities, and our tests will be December 18th. We also practiced cursive writing. Dog Breeds research projects are underway. Homework is posted in Google Classroom.

Seventh Grade continued reading and analyzing nonfiction paired-text articles, "Are Phones Making Us Zombies?" from Scholastic Scope. We continued closely reading the fiction text, "Frankenstein" by Mary Shelley, adapted as drama by Scholastic Scope. ### THOUGHT FOR DECEMBER...

"Christmas, and the end of the year, is definitely a time when people try their hardest to begin afresh, a good time; a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time; when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely."

- A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens

ELA Grades 6-8...

Middle School English Language Arts Curriculum is aligned to the New Jersey Student Learning Standards for English Language Arts. We use the workshop model of instruction in both reading and writing. Students read and write across a wide variety of genres as well as study the effective uses of writing, mechanics, and grammar. The curriculum supports, encourages, and facilitates choice/independent reading that allows students to pursue topics and genres of interests. The curriculum also embeds text activities and literacy experiences that engage students in reading partnerships and deep, thoughtful discussions.

Sixth Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels Hoot, by Carl Hiaasen and Wonder, by RJ Palacio.

Seventh Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels The Giver, by Lois Lowry, Holes by Louis Sachar, and (possibly) Drums, Girls, and Dangerous Pie, by Jordan Sonnenblick.

Eighth Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels The Outsiders, by S.E. Hinton, The Gospel According to Larry by Janet Tashjian, and Sleeping Freshmen Never Lie by David Lubar, and (possibly) Drums, Girls, and Dangerous Pie, by Jordan Sonnenblick.
