A Peek at Our Week...

2024-2025

Mrs. Silvestri's ELA Grades 6-8

Week of January 17, 2025

This Week in ELA Grades 6-8...

Sixth Grade began closely reading and analyzing the short story, "The Stone" by Lloyd Alexander. We read and analyzed poetry, and we read our Independent Reading (IR) books. We also continued closely reading and analyzing nonfiction paired-text articles, "How Candy Conquered America" from Scholastic Scope. We revised essays comparing paired texts, we practiced writing text-dependent paragraphs, and we responded to January choice board writing prompts. We also read nonfiction texts on Newsela and completed paragraph responses, and we completed weekly i-Ready lessons. We continued drafting and revising vignettes about our favorite month. We completed Wordly Wise Lesson 5 activities and assessments. We also practiced cursive writing. Our "Dog Breeds" research projects are underway. Assignments are posted in Google Classroom.

Seventh Grade continued closely analyzing the short story, "The Gift of the Magi" by O. Henry, adapted as drama by Scholastic Scope. We read and analyzed poetry, and we read our Independent Reading (IR) books. We also continued closely reading and thinking critically about nonfiction paired texts from Scholastic Scope. We revised essays about paired texts. We practiced writing text-dependent paragraphs, and we responded to January choice board writing prompts. We also read nonfiction texts on Newsela and completed paragraph responses, and we completed weekly i-Ready lessons. We began drafting "Where I'm From" poems. We completed Wordly Wise Lesson 5 activities and assessments. We also practiced cursive writing. Our "What My Name Means" research projects are underway. Assignments are posted in Google Classroom.

Eighth Grade completed i-Ready Math testing during ELA this week on Tuesday and Wednesday. We also continued reading and discussing our class novel, The Gospel According to Larry by Janet Tashjian. We continued closely analyzing the short story, "A Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens, adapted as drama by Scholastic Scope. THOUGHT FOR JANUARY...

The most beautiful things are not associated with money—they are memories and moments.
If you don't celebrate those, they can pass you by."

ELA Grades 6-8...

Middle School English Language Arts Curriculum is aligned to the New Jersey Student Learning Standards for English Language Arts. We use the workshop model of instruction in both reading and writing. Students read and write across a wide variety of genres as well as study the effective uses of writing, mechanics, and grammar. The curriculum supports, encourages, and facilitates choice/independent reading that allows students to pursue topics and genres of interests. The curriculum also embeds text activities and literacy experiences that engage students in reading partnerships and deep, thoughtful discussions.

Sixth Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels Hoot, by Carl Hiaasen and Wonder, by RJ Palacio.

Seventh Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels The Giver, by Lois Lowry, Holes by Louis Sachar, and (possibly) Drums, Girls, and Dangerous Pie, by Jordan Sonnenblick.

Eighth Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels The Outsiders, by S.E. Hinton, The Gospel According to Larry by Janet Tashjian, and Sleeping Freshmen Never Lie by David Lubar, and (possibly) Drums, Girls, and Dangerous Pie, by Jordan Sonnenblick.
