A Peek at Our Week...

2024-2025

Mrs. Silvestri's ELA Grades 6-8

Week of May 9, 2025

This Week in ELA Grades 6-8...

Sixth Grade completed NJSLA testing Monday-Friday this week.

We also continued reading, analyzing, and discussing our class novel, Wonder by R.J. Palacio. We read our Independent Reading (IR) books. We also continued closely reading and analyzing nonfiction paired-text articles from Scholastic Scope. We practiced writing text-dependent paragraphs, and we responded to May choice board writing prompts. We wrote Mother's Day haikus. We completed weekly i-Ready lessons. Our "Dog Breeds" research project presentations are underway. Assignments are posted in Google Classroom.

Seventh Grade began reading, analyzing, and discussing our new class novel, Pax by Sara Pennypacker. We read our Independent Reading (IR) books. We also continued closely and critically analyzing nonfiction paired texts from Scholastic Scope. We practiced writing text-dependent paragraphs, and we responded to May choice board writing prompts. We completed activity pages, and completed weekly i-Ready lessons. We continued drafting "Where I'm From" poems. We wrote Mother's Day haikus. Our "What My Name Means" research projects are underway. Assignments are posted in Google Classroom.

Eighth Grade completed NJSLA testing Monday-Friday this week during ELA. No ELA classes this week. Our Wax Museum and our "Traditions" research projects are underway. Assignments are posted in Google Classroom.

ELA Grades 6-8...

Middle School English Language Arts Curriculum is aligned to the New Jersey Student Learning Standards for English Language Arts. We use the workshop model of instruction in both reading and writing. Students read and write across a wide variety of genres as well as study the effective uses of writing, mechanics, and grammar. The curriculum supports, encourages, and facilitates choice/independent reading that allows students to pursue topics and genres of interests. The curriculum also embeds text activities and literacy experiences that engage students in reading partnerships and deep, thoughtful discussions.

Sixth Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels Hoot, by Carl Hiaasen and Wonder, by RJ Palacio.

Seventh Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels The Giver, by Lois Lowry, Holes by Louis Sachar, and (possibly) Drums, Girls, and Dangerous Pie, by Jordan Sonnenblick.

Eighth Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels The Outsiders, by S.E. Hinton, The Gospel According to Larry by Janet Tashjian, and Sleeping Freshmen Never Lie by David Lubar, and (possibly) Drums, Girls, and Dangerous Pie, by Jordan Sonnenblick.
