Mrs. Silvestri's ELA Grades 6-8

Week of May 30, 2025

This Week in ELA Grades 6-8...

Sixth Grade continued reading, analyzing, and discussing our class novel, Wonder by R.J. Palacio. We read and analyzed poetry and read our Independent Reading (IR) books. We also continued closely and critically analyzing nonfiction paired texts from Scholastic Scope. We wrote text-dependent paragraphs, and we responded to May choice board writing prompts. We read nonfiction texts on Newsela and completed activity pages. We continued Wordly Wise Lesson 12 activities, and our tests will be Wednesday, June 11. Assignments are posted in Google Classroom.

Seventh Grade continued reading, analyzing, and discussing our class novel, Pax by Sara Pennypacker. We read and analyzed poetry and read our Independent Reading (IR) books. We also continued closely and critically analyzing nonfiction paired texts from Scholastic Scope. We wrote text-dependent paragraphs, and we responded to May choice board writing prompts. We read nonfiction texts on Newsela and completed activity pages. We wrapped up "Where I'm From" poems. We continued Wordly Wise Lesson 12 activities, and our tests will be Wednesday, June 11. Our "What My Name Means" research projects are underway. Assignments are posted in Google Classroom.

Eighth Grade began reading, analyzing, and discussing our class novel, The Outsiders by S.E. Hinton. We also continued reader's theater groups using the short story, "The Lady or the Tiger" by Frank Stockton. We read and analyzed poetry and read our Independent Reading (IR) books. We also continued closely and critically analyzing nonfiction paired texts from Scholastic Scope. We responded to May choice board writing prompts. We read nonfiction texts on Newsela, and we completed book reviews about Drums, Girls, and Dangerous Pie by Jordan Sonnenblick. We continued Wordly Wise Lesson 12 activities, and our tests will be Wednesday, June 11. Our Wax Museum projects are due MONDAY and will be presented on Wednesday, June 4th at our Wax Museum. ELA Grades 6-8...

Middle School English Language Arts Curriculum is aligned to the New Jersey Student Learning Standards for English Language Arts. We use the workshop model of instruction in both reading and writing. Students read and write across a wide variety of genres as well as study the effective uses of writing, mechanics, and grammar. The curriculum supports, encourages, and facilitates choice/independent reading that allows students to pursue topics and genres of interests. The curriculum also embeds text activities and literacy experiences that engage students in reading partnerships and deep, thoughtful discussions.

Sixth Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels Hoot, by Carl Hiaasen and Wonder, by RJ Palacio.

Seventh Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels The Giver, by Lois Lowry and Pax by Sara Pennypacker. (Possibly-Holes by Louis Sachar)

Eighth Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels The Outsiders, by S.E. Hinton, The Gospel According to Larry by Janet Tashjian, and Drums, Girls, and Dangerous Pie, by Jordan Sonnenblick. (Possibly-Sleeping Freshmen Never Lie by David Lubar)
